

Occupational Health
Making your workplace better

At WellWork Ltd we are offering: HAVS 2-3 day SKILLS TRAINING Course

Purpose: Provide required skills and knowledge to carry out health surveillance assessments for HAVS up to and including Level 3 assessments as recommended by the HSEs' tiered approach to health surveillance.

Choice of: 2 day attendance - presentations/ workshops, Day 3 optional - requires completion of assignment - must be within 6 month time frame

- Work place vibration Exposure
- Legal aspects (Employers Liability)
- Epidemiology of HAVS
- Aetiology of the disease
- Signs and symptoms
- Tiered approach to Health Surveillance for HAVS

Workshops:

- History taking
- Griffen method of scoring and staging of vascular component of HAVS
- Level 3 assessment of tiered approach to health surveillance for HAVS

Course aimed at OH Practitioners

On completion of two day course Certificate of attendance will be awarded. Those completing 3 day course will be awarded a certificate of completion.

Course attendance can be included for PREP

The Control of Vibration at Work Regulations 2005. (Came into force on July 6th 2005)

Bringing with them new guidance from the HSE regarding Health Surveillance programmes for those workers exposed to Hand Transmitted Vibration. Requiring increased skills and knowledge of HAVS by Occupational Health practitioners at all levels.

Course administrator - Nicola Weatherley

Westbrooke House Allendale Road, HEXHAM, Northumberland NE46 2DE

Tel: 01434 608444

Course Facilitator - Mrs Jean Bruce RGN OHA
(holder of HAVS FOM competency certificate)
Wellwork LTD (Scotland)

Venues : UK wide to be confirmed